I did not hear one apology for the murders of 1,200 Jews by Palestinian Hezbollahs, Hamas or Gazas. 😞

Clive Bishop Who would you like the apology to come from please? Would an apology from me be enough so I can peacefully demand a ceasefire in a war that has killed 10,000 children in the past three months? Yesterday's peace march wasn't demanding an apology from anyone. All they were asking for was a ceasefire. Surely that's something that we would all want in a war that has killed 25,000 people (10,000 of them being innocent children)?

So very, very sad, I was condemning the Hezbollahs, Hamas , Gazas and others who have taken over Palestine, may God rest the souls of the deceased. ✝️

As we in this peaceful and comfortable part of the world complacently "toddle" through our day, isn't it good to find there are some (if only proportionately a few) who care enough about a troubled part of the world to make some sort of stand for peace?
